

As new portals open and our dimensional awareness expands, it becomes imperative to recognize that we have never been alone in the Universe/s. Understanding our old, programmed, limited belief systems have purposefully denied Earth's vast history and humanity's capabilities as the enlightened beings we are, opens alternative ways to look at ourselves, the world, and our part in this Universal play. Myths tell of these encounters; Indigenous Cultures speak of them; and centuries of documented reporting relays encounters—all denied, maligned, or simply ignored.
